

Cancellation Of School Policy

The School at Blueberry Hill reserves the right to cancel school for any reason deemed necessary by the staff ranging from a state of emergency to illness. The School at Blueberry Hill will not refund any missed days whether the school cancels a school day, or an individual student must miss a school day. The School at Blueberry Hill respects the individuals within the school and will not cancel class without due reason. If class must be cancelled, the School at Blueberry Hill will send out an email to all individuals in a timely manner.

I agree to the following cancellation policy and understand that the School at Blueberry Hill reserves the right to cancel classes and will not refund any missed school days.
